

Thousands of hearing impaired school children around the country in 1000's of school districts currently use the band of frequencies between 216-217Mhz. The school districts are required by IDEA law to provide the equipment to children in their district who have hearing impairment. These schools cannot afford to replace all their equipment. You cant sell them to a commercial market.