

I strongly support the E-rate waiver petition. As a university faculty member who teaches mathematics via audio conferences, I would like to include a visual component to my math courses via the internet. However, many students in rural Alaska do not have reliable and cost effective internet access. This waiver would enable our students to have greater success in math and other educational endeavors. Thank You, Barbara Adams, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Interior-Aleutians Campus, University of Alaska Fairbanks