

As the Site Administrator in a rural Alaskan village in the Lower Kuskokwim School District, I would like to express my support of the Alaska Waiver initiative. It is important for the residents of rural Alaska who do not have access to telecommunication services in their community be allowed to use the school's bandwidth after school hours.

Thank You,
Kip Layton Jr.