

I'm echoing comment by Brett Hill, tech coordinator for Lake and Penn District Schools. I represent 15 schools in the Bering Strait School District. Schools here are connected while communities are not. The numbers don't justify commercial internet providers moving it to take up the slack. Please allow us to extend the educational nature of the Internet to our communities outside of school hours.

Please.

Thank you.