

1 (Brief pause.)

2 BY MR. BECHTEL:

3 Q On the record. Why in bold type do you say, We
4 will not ask Question 4, exclamation point, exclamation point,
5 exclamation point? Out of curiosity.

6 A What page would that be? Which one is that?

7 Q Oh, I was testing you. I thought you'd go right
8 to it.

9 A Okay. Oh, how does that referral process work.
10 Probably because it would have taken three minutes for us to
11 explain the referral process, the entire intake and screening,
12 yada, yada, yada, follow-up.

13 Q Okay. Now, let's see what we got here. Look at
14 your May 18, 1993, meeting agenda.

15 A Um-hum.

16 Q And who is Sandy Post?

17 A Sandy Post at that point was the chairperson for 18 the Volunteer Center cabinet. She also would have been, I
19 guess, the chairperson of the Volunteer Recognition
20 subcommittee at that point.

21 Q And there's a reference to public service
22 announcements. Do you recall what that -- what public service
23 announcements reference that was to?

24 A I'm sorry. Where are you looking?

25 Q To which public service announcements that

1 referred.

2 A Oh, up top. Okay. What she was doing -- as I
3 can recall, the expanded agenda is her little bullet points
4 and things to cover. When she said on the Volunteer
5 Recognition subcommittee report, if you go back to that letter
6 that says that was the first year we decided not to do
7 luncheon, we were going to do media thing, she was probably
8 reporting on -- what she was probably doing was reporting on
9 the fact that the radio was going to do some public service
10 announcements for us.

11 Conversation in Berks. I think that -- that's a
12 WEEU program, I think. I'm not sure. We had wanted articles
13 for the Reading Eagle, Reading newspaper. We were sending
14 letters out to the agencies. We had asked the Greater Reading
15 Council of Churches to put some stuff into their mailings, and
16 then we were putting banners on Penn Square that talked about
17 -- I guess, it was just Volunteer Center banners and then we
18 must have talked about the TV 51 spots. But those public
19 service announcements were based on radio.

20 MR. BECHTEL: I don't have any further
21 questions. Thank you.

22 THE WITNESS: You're welcome.

23 MR. BECHTEL: Very kind of you to come visit
24 with us.

25 MR. HUTTON: Thank you very much.

SECTION I

Non-Broadcast Public Service Efforts

WTVE produced a 20-minute video for the non-profit organization in 1991-1992 at cost. Dan had been honored by the group for his efforts, garnering a commemorative plaque for the station.

In December of 1992, it was decided that Fred Windbeck, the Foundation's President, would come into the studio to deliver an update. The program was built into a half-hour program.

Subsequently, Ray Mulligan, a member of the Switchback Board of Directors, came to WTVE for the purpose of obtaining dubs of the program to take to other area television stations and cable companies. Dan supplied Mr. Mulligan with two broadcast-quality 3/4-inch dubs of the program at cost.

UNITED WAY OF BERKS COUNTY
P.O. Box 302
501 Washington Street
Reading, Pennsylvania 19603

3/1/93 Dan Bendetti, Kim Bradley and Bobbi Nye, WTVE Production Assistant, met with three representatives of the local United Way Chapter to discuss the organization's involvement in the three-minute "News to You" segments which WTVE airs.

Those in attendance were very excited about entering into an ongoing relationship with the station. Present were Monica A. Ruano-Wenrich, Director of Volunteer Activities, Sue M. Pernice, Communications Coordinator and Susan A. Karapcik, Director of Marketing and Communications.

Following the meeting, they forwarded a list of topics they wanted to discuss in the segments (please see Exhibit "A").

A partial list of topics include:

- *Wiley House for homeless children
- *American Cancer Society
- *American Red Cross
- *Association for Retarded Citizens
- *Berks County Mental Health Agency
- *Berks County Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Services

Since National Volunteer Week is coming in April, they want to use this topic to kick off the series.

On Tuesday, March 22nd, a number of members from the local United Way were in the studio to tape the first segments. These will be edited and aired in the immediate future on the station.
