

Ladies & Gentlemen:

I think that lifting the cross-ownership ban to allow further media consolidation will not serve the public interest. I further think that it will allow further control of the media by corporations which I consider to have progressed too far already.

The current dumbing down of the news by the corporate media has reached it's extreme with regards to the Bush administrations "War on Terrorism". I have never seen such uniformity of views on the "War on Terrorism" nor have I ever seen such self-censorship by the media.
