

I urge you to reconsider the rush to lift the few remaining cross-ownership restrictions. You can't possibly argue that we have sufficient diversity and integrity among media since the latest deregulation orgy began in the 90's.

People are increasingly aware of the lack of representation, much less defence of the public's interest, provided by the FCC.

Please act to restore some confidence that all is not being scripted by corporate interests...

Thank you,

Ted Bowen