

I am strongly opposed to changing FCC regulations concerning cross-ownership in media markets. Given the present atmosphere of mergers our choices in news reporting is already far too limited. If the FCC cares anything about freedom and democracy it should not move to further narrow the flow of information.