

Lifting the cross-ownership ban would eliminate any competition between news sources. According to basic capitalist principles, the quality will decrease. Also, citizens will only be exposed to one point of view, which is counter-productive in the democratic process. Please remember that the purpose of your agency is to protect the public, not to serve big-business.