

With regards to the upcoming review of the current cross-ownership ban; reversing that ban is counter to the public interest and will serve to further encourage media conglomerates and their monopoly on public information. It is crucial in a democracy that news sources remain as independent as possible. Please give deep consideration to the consequences of repealing the ban. If anything, the public interest demands a tightening of these regulations, not their dissolution. Thank you.