

An open and full conversation on the issues of the day requires many viewpoints. Already there are too few in the popular media. Please do not diminish democracy by further narrowing the public conversation to even fewer media outlets.

Keep the restrictions on newspaper & TV cross-ownership! Thank you for listening.