

I fully support rules that will protect exclusive network agreements by LPTV stations from the heavy handed and monopolistic practices of cable companies. Cable companies have a long history of abusing their exclusive franchise agreements with local governments by trying to eliminate any competition for local advertising dollars.

LPTV stations are the best and perhaps last example of TV broadcasters fulfilling their FCC mandated "community service" obligations. They warrant the support of the FCC.

Robert P. Flanigan

WLNN-LP "Class A" Boone, NC

WTBL-LP "Class A" Lenoir, NC