

The NASA John Glenn Research Center ARC is not interested in Ham Radio but appears to be in the business of Broadcasting. This causes unnecessary interference on already crowded ham radio frequencies. I am opposed to expanding the John Glenn Broadcasting Companys reasons to be on the air.