

The possible merger of Echostar and DirectTv is not in the best interest of the people. This will create a monopoly and is specifically targetting those of us who live in rural areas. Please do not allow this merger to go forward, it will be a complete disappointment to the people of the United States.