

I support the proposal set forth in RM-10352. Weak signal cw is a primary means of communication of 160M and requires a band segment to insure continuing activity is not encroached upon.