

Cell phone numbers should be portable to users and not tied to service companies. Quit letting service providers dictate their manipulative practices to the public. This practice is not allowed in regular phone service - make it the same for cellular phones.

Thank you for listening.