

I fully support portability of cell phone numbers. There is no legitimate reason to prevent it, and it is only because the cell phone companies want to have "captive" customers that they oppose it. I strongly urge you to allow portability for cell phone numbers