

Please prohibit extra uses of the 440 Mhz Amateur band. This is one of the most used bands and there is already much interference. The Amateur Service should not have to compromise its educational and emergency communications capability.