

I am a local ISP, the ILEC takes every opportunity to cause extra expense for my operation, they use their phone service to subsidize their internet operation and sell below my cost now. Giving them some of my income will help them do a better job of cutting my business down and ultimately out. This will result in fewer choices, no competition, and poorer service to the consumer.

Larry E. Glackin