

Being a Wireless ISP providing last mile connectivity, I Feel that since we have not received any USF money to build out our system. we should not have to pay into it.

It would not benifit any small mom and pop operation as it would the "bells" It would also create an unfair advantage for the few from the backs of the many, as there are many mom and pop operations.

"just say no" to supporting the bloated habbits of the Bells.