

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

My current ISP (Iglou Internet Services) has had a very lengthy battle with BellSouth just to be able to provide us with DSL, and now you (in your infinite wisdom) have decided to take that away from us? Lets think about this for a moment, shall we? Without other ISPs being able to provide DSL, would that not be like Shell being the only one to sell gasoline? So you want to limit our choice of who we feel should provide our service? Are you saying YOU know what is best for us (or are you looking out for the best interest (or would that be money) of the big companies (like BellSouth). By taking away our right to choose, you give the telephone companies the right to do as they wish (like a bully in a schoolyard).

No, do not allow this to happen! We deserve to choose and deserve the right to choose.

Sincerely,

Anthony Shelburne
