

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

This is in regards to your consideration of dropping the requirement that telephone companies be required to provide ISP access to their networks.

Haven't you already done enough for the phone companies? Haven't they already bludgeoned us enough with their over-priced services?

Where does it end? Is this just another case of a huge company greasing the pockets?

This is just another ploy by another monopoly to drive the little guy out, then once that's accomplished, to drive the prices for services up.

Gee, thanks for looking out for me the consumer!

Sincerely,

Jeff Cooper
