

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

Regarding your consideration of dropping the requirement that the telephone companies be required to provide ISP's access to their networks. DON't.

Telephone companies have traditionally had pathetic service and no real goal of providing anything other than a bill to their customers.

An example: my company needed a
