

Dear FCC Commissioners & Staff:

It is my understanding that you are considering leaving Broadband Internet Access up to the big companies and not considering how important our local access providers are. Far and away the best technical support comes through the small ISP's. If you do this without regarding the small local ISP you will be doing serious harm to all users.

Respectfully

James C. Jones

Sincerely,

James Jones
9127 Galene Drive Ste1
Louisville, KY 40299