

Dear FCC Commissioners & Staff:

To Whom It May Concern,

Please keep the current system of open access and competition for ISP - any lessening of competition will only hurt the small business person, citizen and charity groups that depend on available high-speed internet access that is in place. Rather than making it harder for small companies to compete, the FTC should channel its efforts into increasing competition.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Ben Johnson
5024 156th Ave SE
Bellevue, WA 98006