

I request that on the proposed 5 MHz band, the FCC establish a subband for narrow band digital modes, just as exist on most other HF Amateur allocations. A subband of 75 to 100 kHz would be appropriate, similar to other bands.

We are witnessing an explosion of new digital modes in the Amateur Service, and these modes deserve our support.

Sincerely,

Alan J. Wormser
Amateur Station N5LF