RE: CALLS Order Remand Proceeding, CC Docket Nos. 96-262, 94-1, 99-249 and 96-45 -- Access to Confidential Tables A and B Attached to May 29, 2002 Ex Parte

Dear Ms. Dortch,

On June 11, 2002, in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of the Interim Protective Order, and the associated Second Modification,¹ Qwest Corporation (“Qwest”) sought access to confidential documents filed by the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (“NASUCA”) and the Maryland Office of People’s Counsel in the above-referenced dockets. The confidential documents, Tables A and B, which contain Line Count Information regarding the Annual $650 Million Interstate Access Support Mechanism, were attached to a May 29, 2002 ex parte.

As required by paragraph 10 of the Interim Protective Order, Qwest hereby files with the Federal Communications Commission a copy of the June 11, 2002 letter transmitted by the undersigned to Michael Travieso, counsel for NASUCA, along with copies of the executed Declarations for the undersigned and other Qwest representatives that will have access to the confidential Line Count Information.

If you have any questions regarding this submission, please telephone me at the above number.

Sincerely,

/s/ Craig Brown

RE: CALLS Order Remand Proceeding, CC Docket Nos. 96-262, 94-1, 99-249 and 96-45
-- Access to Confidential Tables A and B

Mr. Travieso,

In accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of the Interim Protective Order, and the associated Second Modification,¹ access by Qwest to confidential documents filed by the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates and the Maryland Office of People's Counsel on May 29, 2002 in the above-referenced proceedings is hereby requested. Specifically, access is requested to the confidential attachments, Tables A and B, which contain Line Count Information regarding the Annual $650 Million Interstate Access Support Mechanism.

As required by paragraph 8 of the Second Modification and paragraph 10 of the Interim Protective Order, attached is an executed Declaration for the undersigned and other Qwest representatives that will have access to the Line Count Information. The undersigned and other Qwest representatives² that will have access to Tables A and B agree to adhere to the terms and conditions of the Interim Protective Order and the Second Modification.

Please contact the undersigned at the above telephone number to determine the manner in which access to the confidential material will be provided. My facsimile number is indicated above and my e-mail address is as follows: cxbrown6@qwest.com. If you would like to discuss this request, please call me at the above number. Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,
