Dear Chairman Powell:

HI i am a student at Fairfax High, and i have worked really hard to get my grades. My dad promised me a gift if i got all a's in the nineth grade, but due to financial trouble the promised was not fullfilled. My dad though is a person who keeps his word and even though i didnt get all a's in the eleventh grade he got me the dish. But now i have come to realize that its not enough - dont get me wrong, im not a gresy person always wanting more, but they're not enough channels to select from. If the merger is approved, i will have a broader range of channels to pick from. More educational TV for me (trust me i watch that stuff like crazy) more cartoons for my 11 yr. old brother and more music for my 14 yr. old sister. Plus more news channel for my parents. To make it short i plead you to let this merger pass because even though the present dish is good, i want something better. It would mean a whole lot to me. Finally, thankyou for taking the time to read this mail.

Sincerely,

Mehmud Khan
