

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Chairman Powell:

For years we as the American people have not had a choice of what is offered or who we can get the service from. From bad service to waiting all day just to have nobody to show up from the cable company. Now we do have a choice and that is great. Have you had a bad experience with a cable company? Most have. You see them being made fun of on the channels they carry. The best is Seinfeld. For years they have bullied the public and gave us shotty service and now they want to cry and complain. Did charter cable just within the last year or so claim that Dishnetworks I like Nine was not fair and ask someone to step in....if they are not competitors what are they? I know that the big cable companies have a lot of pull in the system but that should be overlooked too what is better for the people and what they want. Remember WE as the people still have a choice if we want cable or sat...just like WE had the choice of who we put into office to represent us...let US make that decision not the deep pockets of the cable monopoly.

Sincerely,

Curtis Brown
