

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

As a customer of DIRECTV, I am writing to oppose the merger between these two companies.

This in my eyes would create a monopoly and would not be beneficial to the marketplace. I changed over to DirectTV from DISH because of the poor customer service I had received. Had these two companies merged, I would not have any choice in the matter as there are not other providers of affordable satellite tv in my area.

Additionally, without competition, there is no way to keep pricing in check. If they decide to raise the monthly prices, then I would have no where to go and be forced to either discontinue my service, or take less programs to offset the difference.

Once again, I DO NOT support the merger.

Sincerely,

Bryan Williams
