

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am a current cable subscriber for both TV and internet services. I feel I am held hostage to the whims of our local cable monopoly whenever they restructure their packages to provide less channels at a higher price. The merger of Dish and DirectTV networks would enable me to choose from a larger variety of programming packages of digital quality as well as broadband internet.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Spurgeon
