

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

As a customer of DIRECTV, I am writing to urge you to support the pending merger of EchoStar and HUGHES, the parent company of DIRECTV. I believe the merger will increase video and broadband choices for consumers like me.

The combined company will be a much stronger competitor to cable operators by being able to offer me a substantial number of local TV channels via satellite in my market area.

I currently have broadband access to the Internet, but the combination of EchoStar and HUGHES will result in increased competition in the broadband market by providing an affordable high-speed Internet service nationwide via satellite.

Additionally, I urge you to consider this merger positively in light of the pending merger between cable titans Comcast & AT&T. I have spent a great deal of time selling technology to these companies and find them acting like a monopoly - discouraging innovation and limiting consumer choice. I believe EchoStar and Hughes must be combined to provide a viable competitor to cable.

I appreciate your consideration of my views.

Sincerely,

Naveen Chopra
