Dear Ms. Dortch:

On September 30, 2002, counsel for the Consumer Electronics Association (“CEA”) filed electronically a written ex parte presentation in the two above-referenced proceedings. The filing included an attachment converted to PDF format from an Excel document. Inadvertently, only a portion of the original Excel document was included. I have attached to this filing a corrected and complete version of that attachment. A corrected version has also been sent to the persons copied in the original filing. Please include it in the record of these proceedings. Please contact me if you have any questions about this matter.

Sincerely,

 X
David Alan Nall
