

(Reference "CG Docket No. 02-278 CC Docket No. 92-90")

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Beth Yocam and I am a senior at Connecticut College. I recently read online that you are accepting comments about telemarketing procedures in the United States.

First of all, I read online that under the company-specific do-not-call approach, consumers must repeat their request not to be called on a case -by-case basis as calls are received. To me, this approach is unreasonably burdensome. In addition, in my experience, these requests have still not prevented me from receiving unwanted telephone solicitations.

Secondly, it seems to me that there is no legitimate business or commercial speech interest promoted by these calls [generated through predictive dialers].

Thi
and frequency of such solicitations."

Lastly, I feel that the FCC should modify its rules on telemarketers to minimize the unnecessary burdens it causes on people like me. The intrusive way telemarketers make their way into my life, without my consent, must be stopped!!

Thank you very much for your time and I look forward to hearing from you soon in regard to this important issue.

Sincerely yours, Beth Yocam, Conn. College Class of 2003