

As president of the Gateway Chambers Alliance, a group comprised of 22 chambers of commerce. I speak for over 60,000 employers in California who agree that competition is a boost to the economy and to businesses large and small. The Gateway Chambers Alliance hereby states its support of SBC Pacific Bell's entry into the long distance market. I urge the FCC to allow SBC to offer long distance telephone service to consumers and businesses in the State of California.