

Dear Sirs,I am a satellite television customer and would like to voice my opposition to the proposed EchoStar/Hughes merger. I believe the merger would reduce my programming and service choices and result in higher prices. This proposed merger should be denied without further delay.

Sincerely,
James Mathai