

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

As a satellite Tv viewer since 1994 I am asking you to deny the proposed monopoly of DirecTv & Echostar. I have all the local channels free on an antenna, broadband via satellite, and enjoy the fruits of competition between DirecTv and Dish. Giving complete control of the satellite to home industry to Charlie Ergen's wishes is a scary thought. I work at a place that sells DirecTv. We get a steady stream of calls from Dish customers that cannot get service to fix their dish or get their questions answered. If my only option was Dish, I'd go back to cable in a New York minute. I like the competition between the two companies and the cable. It saves me money and creates more choices.

Thank you

Sincerely,
