

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am writting to urge you to vote against the merger of Echostar and DirectTv.

I believe consumers should have the ability to choose and this merger will create the monopoly in Satelite TV distribution that will eliminate competition.

I am urging you to vote against the merger for the reason that, i have experienced a very grave, dissapointing customer service problems which to-date (about a year now) has not been addressed after writting letters to the BBB, Dish Network Customer service and making numerous telephone calls to the designated contact posted on the BBB web site.

As i am considering to take my business to DirectTv, i am very angry to learn that a merger between the worst customer oriented service provider (Dish Network) with the worst track record to back it up will be granted a merger with the only other Satelite television distributer to eliminate competition.

Vote 'NO' to this merger proposal and lets maintain competition to drive the bad apples out of business.

Sincerely,

Sincerely,

Charles Enchill
