

I object to Global Crossing's motion for FCC approval of change in control pursuant to Bankruptcy Reorganization. Global Crossing has not met its burden under the Communications Act in that it has not shown how the proposed change in control is in the public interest. The burden rests with Global Crossing. Global Crossing has not met its burden.