

Request that the FCC deny request from the "new" GX to proceed with their proposed sale on national security grounds. What we have is a state of the art communication /information management system built primarily with US shareholder dollars (side note--the overwhelming majority of those common stockholders will lose their holdings and thus have no say in how the business proceeds) and being handed to the Chinese government through their relationship with the new purchaser, Hutchison.