

the management of global crossing caused serious problems for the industry and the public. the company has strong qualities and if managed properly could be a world wide leader in the future. to allow the sale to any company would be an injustice. the company should be permitted to exit chapter 11 under new management and not sold to a foreign country. greed caused this problem....let common sense and doing what is right be our goal to save this company.