

The do not call list in Indiana is the best thing the legislators have done in the last ten years. I recommend that a national do not call list would be a benefit to all of the people annoyed by telemarketers.