

I strongly object to Global Crossing being sold to the Chinese. Global Crossing's network transmits secured lines of communication for our government, and handing these lines over to the Chinese would be harmful to our national security.