

i do not want any changes lessening or weakening the indiana privacy law there is no reason for anyone to call or bother me trying to sell anything i would like for the law to be strenghten to include all churches and buesiness or anything like that it has been very peaceful at my house and would like for it to remain that waythe calls were always very disturbing to me thank you
james anthony searcy