

Please do not tamper with Indiana's laws governing telemarketers. I am finally able to enjoy dinner with my family. Calls have gone from several during one meal to perhaps one per week! I am afraid that having a "blanket" law may weaken the Indiana law as it now stands. Everyone's always preaching about letting the states do their own thing--LET THEM !!!! Thanks for listening !!