

If you decide to enact a law which will ban telemarketing calls, please do not make it preempt the stricter state laws which have already been enacted here in Indiana. It is so nice to be able to sit down at home, and not receive 3 or 4 calls each night trying to sell me something. Now I only receive 1 or 2 per month. I hope that you will consider finding an alternative solution which will benefit everyone. Thank You.