

Do not interfere with Indiana's "right to privacy" no call policy. Life has been better without the stupid calls we used to get trying to sell us something. We have arthritis and don't appreciate being bothered or having to get up and answer the telephone for a telemarketing person. Ignore those business pressures and do your job of not allowing the telephone to be used as an invasion of privacy device from people we don't want to talk to and won't