

I would like for whoever to leave the law alone on the telephone calls I'm enjoying my time at home and don't like to be bothered with people calling me all the time because if they do call all they will get is an answering machine anyhow.