

We have thoroughly enjoyed the peace after being put on the no call list. We enjoy our privacy and do not appreciate unwanted solitation. The calls began at 9:00 am and never ended until ater 9:00 pm. We have a RIGHT TO OUR PRIVACY. PLEASE CONSIDER STOPPING THE UNWANTED CALLS. We would receive sometimes 10 calls a day. This was just more than we could tolerate. If we wanted these companies services, we would call them. This was becoming somewhat ridiculous. Often we would display anger toward the marketer on the other end of the line. Frustration on our part - we would tell them to give us their home number so we could call them after they got off work or right in the middle of their lunch, dinner, or prior to bedtime. This whole marketing thing had gotten out of hand. PLEASE STOP THIS INSANITY - WE ENJOY OUR PRIVACY AND HAVE THE RIGHT TO IT. THANKS FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION. DIDN'T YOUR HOUSEHOLD GET SICK AND TIRED OF THIS INTRUSION. Half of the time the caller couldn't even pronounce your name, then you knew it was a marketer. Thank God, I have never had to resort to telemarketing for a job, because I would have failed miserably. I could not interupt people like this or withstand their ANGER at being constantly bugged. AGAIN, PLEASE CONSIDER OUR RIGHT TO PRIVACY.
