

The No Call list in Indiana is a wonderful thing. I work at home and received an average of three calls per day from people selling things I didn't want. Since getting on the No Call list the only calls I receive are from people I want to hear from. I think it is very unfair that I pay for the convenience of a phone only to have others abuse it. Please do not change the No Call system!